

- Established in 2004, the Ling Tung University MBA transforms students into a well training leader in their professional career in various industries.
- The objective of MBA program is to challenge and develop students' analytical, decision-making and executive abilities that are essential for professional career development in their future lifetime.
- The MBA program customized to meet student's needs for professional development and a wide variety of business-related disciplines, consists of four sub-programs:
 - Full-Time Master of Business Administration Program,
 - On-Job Master's Degree Program
 - On-Job Master's Degree Program for Cheng Kung Lin Training Base (Military in-camp master education program)
- On-Job Master's Degree Program for Matsu Defense Base (Military in-camp master education program)
- Full-Time MBA Program provided a series cutting-edge curriculum that excites, inspires, and achieve outstanding students who have graduated from college.
- On-Job MBA Program provided courses to the students who have worked for several years and eager to strengthen his or her professional knowledge and business capability.
- On-Job MBA Program for Cheng Kung Lin training base and Matsu defense base provided courses to the military volunteer officers in-camp with strengthen their professional business knowledge.

