

教務處

Office of Academic Affairs

Tel: 886-23892088 ext.1602

Service Center: Administration Building 2F

Organization

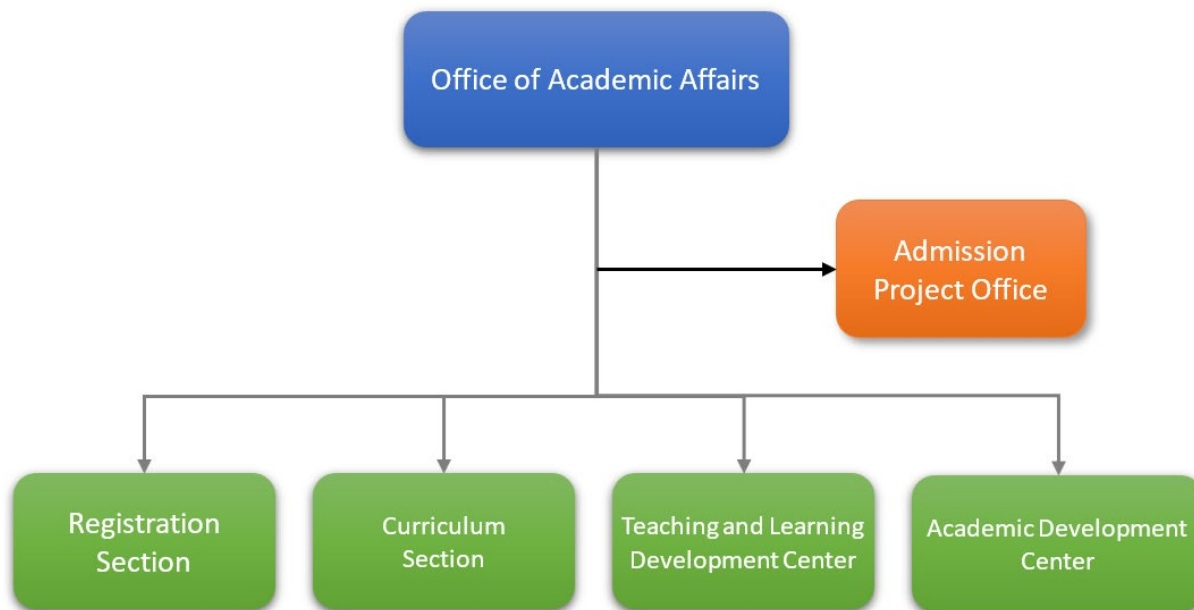

-Curriculum Section: 1612

-Registry Section: 1622

-Teaching and Learning Development Center: 1663

-The Academic Development Center: 1642

-Admission Project Office: 1602

Services:

Registration Services

- Entrance examinations
- Controlling the quotas of the undergraduate and graduate students
- Managing the application for minor and double major studies
- Managing the application for departmental transfer
- Managing the application for credits transfer
- Issuing and reissuing student ID cards

After a student successfully completes the application process and receives an admission notification, he must follow the procedure to register.

- Filling in personal information online at the url which is provided in admission notification.
- Arriving at our gym for onsite registration

Course Selection Information

- Office provides online course selection; students can log into our online platform to select the courses and get the curriculum information they would like to take.

-The url for the course selection platform is: <https://course.ltu.edu.tw/>

Study Support Resources

-Student learning counseling.

-LTU eLearning materials website(<http://lms.ltu.edu.tw/>).

The Academic Development Center utilizes internal and external resources in order to develop strategies and systems which encourage faculty to publish high quality papers and to win government research grand such as MOST (Ministry of Science and Technology) projects. Meanwhile, the center also provides services concerning establishment, rewards-related matter and subsidy application of teacher such as attending conference meeting and research result incentive in our university.

Academic Services

-Graduate Tutoring and Proposal planning.

-Promotions of initiatives from government research grand such as MOST (Ministry of Science and Technology) projects.